Tojo Historical Museum - - - Special Exhibition - - - Shogun and Prince “the Loser’ s” Meiji Restoration

This exhibition takes up two historical figures, Tokugawa Yoshinobu and Tokugawa Akitake. We try to look over the performances they achieved respectively in the fields of politics and culture from the viewpoint of “the loser”. You can also see their human images that emerge by comparing and contrasting the events that happened before and after the Meiji Restoration, namely, the end of Togugawa shogunate. Thus we try to search for a new way of understanding for history by looking carefully and collectively into those historical materials relating to Tokugawa Yoshinobu family and Matsudo Tokugawa family that are stored in this museum as well as other materials which this museum collected separately.

Exhibition period: October 10 (Sat) ~ November 23 (Mon) (national holiday)

Closed on: Monday (or Tuesday if Monday falls on a national holiday)
